A goal of the ConVal School District and Title I Program is to build a partnership between families, school and children that will help every child achieve the State's high academic standards. This compact outlines how responsibility is shared at Antrim Elementary School.

Antrim Elementary School (AES)

Title I SCHOOL-FAMILY COMPACT

Students are responsible for:

- Reading at home every day
- Doing their best every day
- Asking for help when needed, and giving help when they can
- Talking to their family about the school day

Parents are responsible for:

- Continuing to READ DAILY with their child
- Helping their child with reading and math at home
- Actively participating in parent/family-teacher conferences
- Partner with schools to remove barriers for greater student achievement

Teachers are responsible for:

- Providing every student with the opportunity to learn in a safe, supportive environment
- Providing opportunities for communication between school and home, including activities that families can do at home to support learning
- Reporting to parents regarding their child's progress

School Commitment:

We will deliver a high quality curriculum, based on the State's standards. We will use instructional methods shown to be effective for children with a variety of achievement levels, interests and backgrounds. We will provide an environment that supports the uniqueness of each and every child.
